

BYLAWS
OF SOUTHEASTERN SOCIETY OF AMERICAN FORESTERS (AMENDED - 4/02)

ARTICLE I

NAME

This organization is a unit of the Society of American Foresters (the Society*) and shall be known as the Southeastern Society of American Foresters. As provided in Article VI of the Constitution of the Society of American Foresters, the Southeastern Society of American Foresters is comprised of the States of Alabama, Florida, and Georgia.

ARTICLE II

OBJECTIVES

Sec. 1. The objectives shall be:

- (1) To advance the science, technology, education, and practice of professional forestry in America and to use the knowledge and skills of the profession to benefit society.
- (2) To provide an opportunity for better communication among the individual members, their regional representatives and the Society.

*The term "the society" refers to the National Society of American Foresters.

ARTICLE III

ACTIVITIES LIMITED TO EXEMPT PURPOSES

No part of the net earnings of the Southeastern Society shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Southeastern Society shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Southeastern Society shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the Southeastern Society shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. In the case of a written request from a governmental body, committee or subdivision, the Southeastern Society shall provide technical assistance and advice providing the Southeastern Society deems it appropriate to provide such assistance. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Southeastern Society shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP

- Sec. 1. Every member of the Society in good standing is entitled to membership in the state society in which the members has established domicile. The domicile of a member shall be the member's home or residence, unless the member's place of business and professional affiliations lie within the territory of another state society, when, by notification in writing to the national office, the member may establish domicile with said other state society for the purpose of state society membership. An individual may be a voting member of and be eligible for office holding in only one state society, but may become an associate member of any other state society.
- Sec. 2. Only voting members, as defined in the Society's Constitution, in good standing, shall be entitled to vote on any question before the state society. Other members may attend any meeting of the state society and take part in the discussions, but shall have no vote. Members of a student chapter shall be entitled to vote only on any question before the student chapter.
- Sec. 3. Membership in the state society may be terminated by (1) voluntary resignation, (2) failure to pay dues, (3) expulsion from the society for unprofessional conduct, or (4) transfer of domicile to another state society.

ARTICLE V

DUES

- Sec. 1. The annual dues of the Southeastern Society shall be set by the Southeastern Society Executive Committee based on the financial needs of the Southeastern Society.
- Sec. 2. The annual dues of the Southeastern Society shall be payable from the first day of January. With the exception of student members who shall not be assessed, dues shall be collected by the Society concurrently with the National dues and transmitted to the Southeastern Society.
- Sec. 3. Members who have not paid national and state society dues by March 1 shall be notified by the Society that they are in bad standing, and thus ineligible to vote, to receive the Journal of Forestry, to be a candidate for office, or to hold office until the dues are paid.
- Sec. 4. A member who transfers to another state society and had paid annual dues in the state society from which the transfer is being made shall not be required to pay additional dues for the year of transfer and shall automatically become a member of the state society to which transferred for the remainder of the year.
- Sec. 5. New members admitted during the year shall pay pro-rate dues beginning with the quarter after the admission is accepted.
- Sec. 6. State Divisions and Chapters will set their annual dues annually and notify SESAF and the SAF National Office of any changes.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

- Sec. 1. The officers of the Southeastern Society shall include a Chair, a Vice Chair, a past Chair, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as may be found necessary. Officers shall be voting members of the Society and the state society for the duration of their terms. Terms shall be for one year and commence on January 1.
- Sec. 2. The Vice Chair is elected for one-year term and automatically shall become Chair for the subsequent term. The Secretary and the Treasurer shall be elected or appointed. The Secretary and Treasurer may be the same person. The Vice Chair office shall rotate annually among the member states of the SESAF.
- Sec. 3. Other officers are a Historian, Public Affairs Officer, and Newsletter Editor, and shall be appointed by the Chair with the approval of the Executive Committee.

- Sec. 4. The Vice Chair, upon completion of the term of office, shall automatically become Chair for the subsequent term, and shall be ineligible for re-election to either office. The Chair, upon completion of the term as Chair, automatically becomes past Chair for one term.
- Sec. 5. In the event that the Chair is unable to complete the full term of office, the Vice Chair shall succeed and complete the unexpired term prior to serving the full term as Chair. Should this occur, the Executive Committee, by a majority vote, shall appoint a replacement Vice Chair who shall assume the duties of the vacant office until the next regular election of officers. In the event the Vice Chair is unable to complete the term of office and succeed to the office of Chair, the Executive Committee shall appoint an acting Chair to serve until the next election at which time both a Chair and a Vice Chair shall be elected. Vacancies in the offices of Secretary and Treasurer shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

OF OFFICERS

- Sec. 1. The Chair shall be responsible for developing and continuing Southeastern Society activities during the term of office and for organizing the membership toward meeting the objectives. The Chair shall preside at meetings of the Southeastern Society; serve as Chair of the Executive Committee and as ex-officio member of all other committees; oversee the business affairs; appoint, with the approval of the Executive Committee, the standing committees and other special committees; act as the official delegate to the meeting of Society Delegates, or with the approval of the Executive Committee, appoint an alternate; and perform all other duties commonly incident to such office.

The Tellers committee shall operate in accordance with the committee charter. This committee shall assemble at the time and place set by the Secretary to count ballots and shall certify the results of elections to the Chair and Executive Committee.

I. AUDITING COMMITTEE

The Auditing Committee shall operate in accordance with the committee charter. This committee, at the conclusion of the fiscal year, shall inspect the financial records of the Treasurer. The committee shall certify the accuracy of the financial statements prepared by the Treasurer and shall report the results of the audit to the Chair and the membership.

J. AWARDS COMMITTEE

The Awards Committee shall be composed of seven (7) members as follows: Society Past Chair will be the Committee Chair and will appoint two members each from the Society Divisions (Alabama, Florida and Georgia). They shall be responsible for the selection of all honors and award recipients of the Society except those involving Student Awards. If in the judgment of the Awards Committee no suitable candidate for an award is nominated, the Committee may at its discretion decline to make a recommendation for that award for that period.

K. SPECIAL COMMITTEES

Special Committees, authorized by the Executive Committee, shall be appointed by the Chair.

ARTICLE X

APPOINTMENTS

With the approval of the Executive Committee, the Chair shall make the following appointments:

A. FOREST SCIENCE COORDINATOR

A Forest Science Coordinator shall be appointed for a two year term beginning January 1, and may be reappointed to a total of two consecutive terms. The Forest Science Coordinator serves on the Regional Forest Science Committee as provided in the national society bylaws.

B. COMMITTEES

The Chair and members of each authorized committee shall be appointed to serve for one year terms, beginning January 1.

C. OTHER APPOINTMENTS

Other appointments shall be authorized by the Executive Committee and made by the Chair.

ARTICLE XI

A. STATE DIVISIONS

A State Division may be authorized by the Executive Committee upon written petition of 30 or more voting members in the state and upon the approval by referendum of the members in the state. The boundaries of a State Division shall follow state lines except in cases approved by the Council. The authorization for a State Division may be rescinded by the Executive Committee or upon the affirmative vote of at least 10 members of the Council. A State Division shall hold at least one meeting each year to retain its authorization.

The officers of each State Division shall include a Chair, a Vice Chair, a Past Chair, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as may be found necessary. The secretary and treasurer may be the same person. State Division officers shall be voting members of the society and shall be resident or employed within the boundaries of a State Division for the duration of the term of office which shall be established under State Division Bylaws.

A State Division shall report promptly to the Southeastern Society Chair and the SAF Executive Vice President, the election of State Division officers, the adoption of State Division bylaws and amendments thereto, and shall report at least once a year on the proceedings of the State Division. Actions or recommendations of a State Division on Society affairs will be transmitted to the Southeastern Society for recommendation to the Council.

Southeastern Society is authorized to appropriate funds to the State Division for the conduct of its business. Upon request, the SAF Executive Vice President will collect and forward dues of State Divisions and may provide mailing labels, membership rosters, and other automation products.

B. CHAPTERS

A Chapter within a state may be authorized by the Executive Committee upon written petition of 15 or more voting members resident in an area where a strong local organization may be effected. The boundaries of a Chapter shall be established by the Executive committee. Where a viable Chapter can be sustained only by including members from both sides of a state boundary, the Chapter shall be affiliated with the state society in which a majority of the Chapter members are residents.

A Chapter shall hold at least one meeting each year to retain its authorization.

The authorization for a Chapter may be rescinded by the Executive Committee or upon the affirmative vote of at least 10 members of the Council.

The officers of each chapter shall include a Chair, a Vice Chair, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as may be found necessary. The Secretary and Treasurer may be the same person. Chapter officers shall be voting members of the society and shall be residents or employed within the boundaries of the chapter for the duration of the term of office which shall be for one year, beginning January 1.

Chapters may adopt bylaws subject to approval of the Executive Committee and the Council, provided that no part thereof shall conflict with the constitution and bylaws of the Society.

Adjacent Chapters of adjoining state societies may conduct joint activities when the Executive Committees of such societies determine that topography, accessibility, and concentration of membership make this arrangement desirable.

A Chapter shall report promptly to the Southeastern Society Chair, State Division Chair, and the SAF Executive Vice President the election of Chapter officers, the adoption of Chapter bylaws and amendments thereto, and shall report at least once a year on the proceedings of the Chapter. Actions or recommendations of a Chapter on Society affairs will be transmitted to the Southeastern Society for recommendation to the Council.

A state division is authorized to appropriate funds to the Chapter for the conduct of its business.

Upon request, the Executive Vice President may provide mailing labels, membership rosters, and other automation products.

C. STUDENT CHARTERS

A Student Chapter may be authorized within the Southeastern Society by the Executive Committee of the southeastern Society, upon written petition of 15 or more members at an institution designated as SAF-accredited or as a candidate institution for accreditation or an SAF-recognized forest technician training program, or upon written petition of 15 or more members.

Student Chapters shall be composed of Student members and other society members employed by an institution designated as SAF-accredited or as a candidate institution for accreditation or by an SAF-recognized forest technician school. Student Chapter officers shall serve for the school year.

Student Chapter officers shall be students or graduate students who are members of the Society.

ARTICLE XII

MEETINGS

The annual meeting of the Southeastern Society shall be held at the time and place designated by the Executive Committee with at least 30 days notice to the membership but shall not conflict with the annual meeting of the National Society. Other meetings will also avoid such conflict.

At least one business meeting consisting of no less than five percent of the voting membership shall be held during the year to consider business of sufficient importance to require careful consideration by the members at large. Business meetings may be held separately or in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Southeastern Society and notification of such meetings, stating the nature of the business to be undertaken, shall be sent to the membership 30 days in advance of the meeting. Positions pertaining to Southeastern Society policy shall be presented at the business meeting for discussion and, if approved by a majority vote, shall be submitted to all voting members by letter ballot, except as provided in National Society Bylaws II A-M. All ballots must be returned to the Secretary, someone designated by the Secretary, or the Tellers committee for counting within six weeks. A simple majority of the votes cast shall be required for adoption. All adopted positions shall be transmitted to the Executive Committee for appropriate action.

Other meetings as needed shall be scheduled by the Chair, with the approval of the Executive Committee, and may be open to friends of members and other interested persons for the exchange of ideas on subjects of interest to the profession of forestry. Resolutions of gratitude, regret and other non-policy matters may be adopted by a majority vote of those present at these meetings.

Important business matters that cannot be delayed until the next business meeting may be submitted to the voting membership by mail ballot.

ARTICLE XIII

RECALL

Any officer may be removed from office for reason of misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty provided such removal is approved by two-thirds vote of all members voting in a letter ballot. Such ballot may be initiated by the Executive Committee on its own volition or it shall be required to conduct such a ballot if it receives a petition setting forth the points of contention and signed by at least two percent but in no case less than 10 of the voting members of the Southeastern Society. Ballots shall be mailed and received by a member of the Executive Committee as chosen by the Committee.

ARTICLE XIV

AMENDMENTS OF BYLAWS

Amendment to these bylaws may be proposed by the Executive Committee or upon written petition of at least two percent but in no case less than 10 of the voting members of the state society. Proposed amendments shall be submitted to the Council for approval prior to a mail ballot of voting members. Amendment of these bylaws shall require a two-thirds vote of the members voting.

ARTICLE XV

ASSETS

Southeastern Society assets belong to the Southeastern Society membership as a whole. In the event of a division or merger of state societies. The assets of the parent state society(ies) will be audited and allocated to the new state society(ies) in proportion to the percentage of the voting members transferred.

Upon the dissolution of the Southeastern Society, the Executive Committee shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Southeastern Society, transfer all the assets of the Southeastern Society to the National Society, or dispose of all assets of the Southeastern Society exclusively for the purposes of the Southeastern Society in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Executive Committee shall determine.
